NEWS AND NOTES

BCS NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP Alabama (-2') 21 LSU 0 - LSU didn't cross midfield until 8:00 were left in the game as Alabama proved that they are one of the top defenses in NCAA history. They held LSU to 5 FD's and 92 yds. Jeremy Shelley tied a bowl record with 5 FG's and the game was somewhat of a replay of their 9-6 OT match except Bama completely dominated this one on offense, defense and special teams. Trent Richardson rushed 20 times for 96 yards and got the first TD in the 2 games with 4:36 left on a 34 yard run. AJ McCarron was the star player as they threw on FD all but twice and McCarron hit 23-34-234 yds. Bama even lost their top PR/WR Marquis Maze after a long PR in the 1Q and he DNR. Bama missed 2 FG's in the game with a 42 yd'r blk'd and a 41 yd'r being missed late 3Q and LSU when they crossed midfield with 7:53 left was actually still within 2 scores despite the domination but after Bama went up 21-0 LSU opted to punt on 4&9 from their own 24 with 2:47 left and Bama's final play ended at the LSU 40.

WILDCARD HOUSTON (-3) 31 vs Cincinnati 10 - Houston had its first ever playoff game and it was at home in front of a charged up crowd. Cincinnati was coming off a home game vs Baltimore which was like a playoff game but they had come up short and now had a rookie QB making a playoff road start. Foster rushed for 153 yards (6.4). Dalton did outstat TJ Yates hitting 27-42-257 while Yates hit 11-20-159. Each team went 3&out to open. HOU got 1 FD and punted and CIN went 74/5pl, the key a 52 yd PI down to the 20. The TD put the Bengals up 7-0. HOU answered with an 80/6pl drive and Foster's 8 yd td run tied it at 7. CIN went on a 14pl drive but on 3&8 was sk'd for a 9 yd loss and missed 50 yd FG (12:45 2Q). CIN20 went 61/8pl for a 37 yd FG, 10-7 (7:09). HOU went 59/13pl and settled for a 39 yd FG, 10-10 (1:48). The key play of the game happened after the Bengals got 1 FD to their 34. Dalton threw a short pass that was int'd by DL Watt and ret'd 29 yds for a TD and HOU led 17-10 (:52). CIN got 1 FD and was sk'd. At half the yards were even at 156. The first three 2H poss were punts. HOU took over with 5:45 left in the 3Q and went 83/9pl and got a 40 yd TD pass to Johnson, 20-10. CIN20 got 2 FD but on 4&3 were int'd from the HOU47. Joseph actually should have dropped the int as it cost them 23 yds of field position and HOU started at their 24. HOU got 2 FD's and punted with just 7:25 left. CIN was then int'd at their own 45 and HOU's Foster ripped off a 42 yd TD run down the right sideline where he barely stayed in bounds, 31-10 (5:15). CIN gained 71 yds on 13 plays getting to the HOU9 where they were SOD on 4&5 with 2:23 left.

WILDCARD NEW ORLEANS (-10') 45 Detroit 28 - If you check out the Power Plays forecast on this game it was almost a preplay of the game with the yards all within 50 yards and the points very close as PP called for a 40-23 win and the final was 45-28. DET rushed for just 32 yds and Drew Brees hit 33-43-466 as the Saints piled up a 626-412 yd edge. Two TO's in the 1H kept it close. DET opened with an 80/8pl drive and got a 10 yd TD pass. NO19 got 2 FD's but fmb'l'd at the DET18. DET got 2 FD's to midfield and punted. NO went 89/11pl for a TD, 7-7 (14:01 2Q). DET went 87/9pl for a TD, 14-7 (9:11). NO20 got 3 FD's but fmb'l'd at the DET38. After DET went 3&out punting with 5:03 left, NO went 78/14pl but settled for a 24 yd FG on the last play of the half on 3rd down. At the half the Saints had a 256-210 yd edge but trailed by 4. NO scored TD's on their first five 2H drives. The opened with a 78/4pl drive for a TD. DET got 1 FD and punted. NO went 92/13pl for a TD, 24-14 (4:03). DET went 80/8pl and got a 1 yd TD run, 24-21 (1:08 3Q). NO went 80/14pl for a 17 yd TD run by Sproles, 31-21 (9:53). DET was int'd on a deep pass and the Saints went 61/4pl for a TD, 38-21. DET got back under the number going 79/9pl and got a 12 yd TD pass with 4:40 left, 38-28. NO rec'd the onside kick then went 44/4pl for a TD with 3:36 left. DET20 got 1 FD and was int'd and ret'd 17 yds to their own 33. NO got a FD to the 7 and took a knee.

WILDCARD DENVER (+9') 29 Pittsburgh 27 OT - The story here was two-fold. Injuries to PIT and big plays in the passing game for Tebow. PIT came in without their top rusher Mendenhall, C Pouncy and S Clark and a banged up Roethlisberger. During the game, their entire D-line was injured and out by mid-2Q and they also lost starting OT Starks. The Steelers game plan was to take away the Bronco rush and that left Tebow some deep passes. He had just 10 completions for the game but they went for an amazing 316 yards. PIT looked like they would dominate early. They opened with a 53/8pl drive for a 45 yd FG. DEN went 3&out on their first 2 poss. PIT punted on their 2nd poss but then went 47/12pl and settled for another FG, this one 38 yds and led 6-0 in a dominating 1Q where they had 119-10 yd edge. DEN went 80/5pl with a 30 yd TD pass to Royal. That was set up by a 21 yd pass to Decker and DEN led 7-6 (13:24 2Q). PIT went 3&out and DEN got a 58 yd pass to Thomas on its 2nd play and went 73/4pl for an 8 yd Tebow TD run, 14-6. PIT was int'd at their own 27 and ret'd 9 yds. DEN got 1 FD and settled for a 20 yd FG, 17-6 (7:30). PIT got 1 FD and punted (5:09). DEN31 went 59/8pl and got a 28 yd FG with 1:08 left in the half, 20-6. PIT got 2 FD's to the DEN 38 but on 3&4 from the 32, Roethlisberger fmb'l'd the snap and was tkl'd for a loss and PIT punted. At half DEN had a 233-170 yd edge. DEN opened the 3Q (20) with 3 FD's to the PIT38 but punted 26 yds. PIT13 went 87/11pl for a TD, 20-13. DEN went 63/12pl and got a 35 yd FG, 23-13 with 13:10 left. PIT went 61/7pl but settled for a 37 yd FG, 23-16. DEN got 2 FD's but then McGahee fmb'l'd and PIT appeared poised for the win. They went 55/7pl and got a TD to tie with 3:48 left. DEN got 1 FD and punted and PIT (24) once again got to the DEN45 but Roethlisberger was sk'd and fumbled for an 11 yd loss and they punted on 4&14. In OT DEN won the toss and on the first play, Tebow went deep and found Thomas for an 80 yd TD. Even in the new playoff OT rules, that ended the game.

WILDCARD NY GIANTS (-3) 24 Atlanta 2 - ATL was a dome team playing outdoors but it was 44' with 12 mph winds. The story here was two failed 4th down conversions which really set the tone for the game. The first 5 poss opened with punts and just 1 combined FD. ATL went 66/14pl but on 4&1 on the first play of the 2Q were SOD. Two plays later, however, Eli Manning was called for intentional grounding in the EZ on 2&21 from the 13 so ATL got a safety and the lead, 2-0. ATL38 got 1 FD and punted. NYG went 85/13pl with 9 runs on the drive. The TD made it 7-2. 2 punts. ATL took over with 1:08 left in the half (20) and got 2 FD's. At half NYG had a slim 128-127 yd edge. ATL opened the 3Q with a punt and NYG went 72/11pl but settled for a 22 yd FG after a 1st & gl at the 5, 10-2. ATL21 went 58/9pl but on 4&1 were SOD at the NYG21. Three plays later Manning found Hicks for a 72 yd TD pass where he was wide open over the middle then outraced the secondary in the EZ, 17-2. ATL went 3&out and the NYG went 85/10pl and got a 27 yd TD pass to Manningham to lead 24-2 with 9:55 left. ATL punted on 4&10 and the NYG went on a time consuming 71/12pl drive eating up 6:25 and missing a 32 yd FG with 2:57 left. ATL gained 54/10pl being SOD on 4&10 at the NYG17 with 1:01 left. NYG had a 442-247 yd edge.

CONF SEMI-FINALS SAN FRANCISCO (+3) 26 New Orleans 32 - Turnovers, turnovers, turnovers. There has been a grand total of one team that has ever won a playoff game giving up 5 TO's and that was back in 1977 when the Oakland beat the Baltimore Colts. The TO's kept the Saints from dominating but this turned out to be one of the most exciting finishes of any playoff game. With 1:37 left in the game, NO had 26-14 FD and 472-322 yd edges and led by 3 but Alex Smith hit a huge 47 yd pass to Vernon Davis which got him in scoring position and they got a 14 yd TD pass while in FG range to tie it with :09 left. Had that pass been incomplete, the game would have gone to OT. NO opened with a 78/12pl drive but fmb'l'd at the 2. Each team punted and SF got a 49 yd TD pass to Davis to go up 7-0. It was a 54/2pl drive. NO14 got 1 FD and then were int'd and ret'd 41 yds to the 4. SF got a TD 3pl later, 14-0. NO then fmb'l'd the KO at their own 13 and SF got a 25 yd FG to lead 17-0 giving them scoring drives of 3 and 4 yds. The Saints went 80/9pl for a TD. SF went 3&out and the Saints went 66/7pl for a TD, 17-14. SF punted but the Saints were int'd at the SF29 with 1:54 left in the half. Each team punted and then SF fmb'l'd at their own 45 but NO could not capitalize on SF's lone TO as they fired incomplete 3 times. NO fmb'l'd the punt at their own 26 and SF got a 3 yd drive for a 41 yd FG, 4 punts. NO went 47/9pl getting a 48 yd FG to pull within 20-17. 2 punts. SF36 got a 42 yd run by Gore to the 22 and got a 37 yd FG to go up by 6, 23-17 (7:36). NO went 79/9pl and got a TD for the lead with 4:02 left on a 44 yd pass to Sproles. SF answered. On 3&8 it appeared they were going to settle for a FG but Alex Smith ran around the left end 28 yds for a TD and the 2 pt failed and SF led 29-24 with 2:11 left. NO12 got 2 FD's then a 66 yd TD pass to Graham appeared to give them win. The 2pt conv made it 32-29 with 1:37 left. SF got 1 FD and then a 47 yd pass to Davis and on 3&4 in FG range for OT, took one final shot at the EZ and their wish was granted as it was a 14 yd TD to Davis for the outright win.

CONF SEMI-FINALS NEW ENGLAND (-13') 45 Denver 10 - Tim Tebow, Tim Tebow, Tim Tebow. The media focus on Tim Tebow all week and Tom Brady made sure folks didn't forget about him. He hit 26-34-363 yds and tied an NFL Playoff record with 6 TD passes. The record was set by Daryle Lamonica in 1969 and tied by Steve Young in the 1995 Super Bowl. The outcome was decided by halftime. NE rolled up 31-15 FD and 509-252 yd edges. NE opened with a quick 80/5pl drive for a TD. DEN got a pair of FD's to the NE37 but Tebow was sk'd and fmb'l'd. NE quickly went 59/7pl for a TD, 14-0. DEN17 got 1 FD and punted. NE13 got 1 FD and was int'd and ret'd 17 yds to their own 24. They set the Broncos up for a 24/4pl drive and McGahee's 5 yd TD appeared to make a game of it, 14-7. NE got 1 FD to midfield and punted but DEN went 3&out and NE went 52/8pl for a TD, 21-7 (7:42). 3 punts. NE took over with 2:27 left in the half and got a 61 yd TD pass to Branch with just 1:57 left. DEN threw the ball twice and punted with 1:09 left. The Pats made them pay with a 58/5pl drive for a TD with :05 left, a 19 yd pass to Gronkowski, 35-7. At the half NE had 19-7 FD and 351-120 yd edges. DEN went 3&out and NE went 44/4pl after a 15 yd PR by Edleman, 42-7. DEN went 3&out and NE(49) got 2 FD's to the DEN23 but fmb'l'd. DEN went 58/14pl and got a 41 yd FG with 2:14 left in the 3Q, 42-10. NE went 78/11pl for a 20 yd FG, 45-10 (12:39). DEN went 77/14pl and were SOD on 4&gl at the NE3. NE got 2 FD's and punted with 2:56 left and DEN was happy to run the clock out taking over at their own 5 and getting 1 FD with 5 runs.

Even though they avenged their loss in 2010, the 33-14 home loss in the 2009 Wildcard round still stings the Patriots. BAL was simply the more physical team that day as they dominated all phases. This led to NE altering their offensive package to be 2 TE heavy and more physical. Both teams took advantage of inexperienced QB's LW's to advance. NE exerted their will vs DEN (509-252 yd edge) while BAL capitalized on HOU's mistakes. Seventeen of BAL's 20 pts were off TO's with only 2 drives over 40 yds on the day. NE is now 8-1 SU/5-4 ATS at home TY outgaining foes by 70 ypg (+7 TO's) for a 32-18 avg score. BAL went 4-4 SU/ATS on the road w/a +14 ypg mark (-5 TO's) for a 20-18 avg score. SD, NYJ, PIT, and IND are the common foes with BAL going 4-1 SU/3-2 ATS w/a 331-287 yd edge (+6 TO's) for a 26-18 avg score. NE went 4-1 SU/3-2 ATS being outgained 393-384 but was +9 TO's for a 30-21 avg score.

BAL's best finish on off has been 13th with Joe Flacco at QB so TY's #15 ranking is within the norm. After having a career best ssn in 2010, Flacco's #'s are a bit disappointing esp his 57.6% comp rate. Part of this is due to having a rookie #2 WR and a pair of 2nd year TE's seeing more time in the passing game. OC Cam Cameron generally emphasizes the pass to start the year to get more snaps for Flacco in warmer games while keeping Ray Rice fresher down the stretch. TY was no different as Rice avg'd 62 ypg (4.1) in the 1st 9 gms vs 115 ypg (5.3) over the final 7 finishing 2nd in rushing to Jones-Drew. Under Flacco the biggest issue with BAL's off has been a lack of spd on the perimeter. They upgraded that with Torrey Smith who finished 3rd in rec yds and 4th in ypc for rookie WR's with more than 10 rec's. Boldin missed the L/2 with a knee injury but is expected to ret for the playoffs along with Lee Evans who missed almost all of the ssn with an unspecified foot injury. TE Ed Dickson had a solid impact in the passing game but he was tasked with more blk'g in the L/7 which coincides with Rice's surge. BAL's OL had an excellent yr as they started all but 1 gm together due to RG Andre Gurode's toe injury and were 12th in sks all'd. The Ravens #3 def also had an excellent yr finishing in the top 10 for the 9th straight ssn. BAL is one of the few teams with the luxury of being able to plug in DC's, though 1st year DC Chuck Pagano was more aggressive with the blitz than in previous ssn's. BAL only had 8 games missed by def starters TY with 4 coming via Ray Lewis' turf toe injury. While BAL allowed 8 gms of 100 yds rushing (120 ypg, 3.7) they also held foes to 93 yds or less (65 ypg, 2.1) 8 times. They are 1 of the 5 teams with more int than TD passes allowed TY and allowed 200 or fewer yds passing in 9 gms TY. BAL's biggest issue is their special tms which after being 12th LY tumbled to 25th due to poor play by the return units.

Much like GB, NE has taken a bit of heat TY for their #31 D. Belichick flipped the unit to a 4-3 due to the lockout but inj's took their toll with only 5 def st's playing all 16. NE's "bend don't break" scheme relies a lot on situational FB which is where Belichick excels. NE is a healthy 14th in sks despite not having a marquee pass rusher, is tied w/SEA for 3rd in takeaways (34) and are an avg 15th in ppg allowed. NE's #31 pass def has only all'd 3 more TD's than int which is 8th best TY. NE has given up 8 gms of 300 net yds passing TY but since their bye week on Oct 23rd they have all'd only 2 games with an opposing QBR of over 100 with 1 vs IND when they toyed with them in the 4Q. NE also seems to be mentally tougher than the L/2Y on D as they have solid leaders in Vince Wilfork, Jerod Mayo and the defenders are used to this style of ball. The Patriots also quietly got Patrick Chung back in the ssn finale as well as Brandon Spikes to help shore up the run defense. NE's best def player is Tom Brady as he sets the tempo with his command of the game. Along with Brees he also broke Dan Marino's NFL passing record and his 39 pass TD's was 2nd only to his 50 in 2007 and his 8.57 ypa was 2nd only to Rodgers TY. 2010 offered a glimpse of how versatile NE's 2 TE spread off could be as Gronkowski and Hernandez are starting to max it out. NE is the only team with 3 plyrs over 900 yds rec and just Welker and Hernandez comb have more rec yds than DEN (by 188 yds) or JAX (by 386 yds). Brady's success eats into the #20 gm and keep in mind it had finished 12th or better the L/3Y. NE's RB's get playing time depending on the situation/foe and are a "hidden asset" in this off. The top 3 RB's have comb for 1,459 yds (4.2) which would be 2nd behind Jones-Drew in rushing TY. The fact that Brady has been sk'd just 32 times TY (9th) is quite impressive as only FA addition Brian Waters has started all 16 gms TY. NE also has also improved on ST's as after being 11th LY they are 6th thanks to their punt units.

A classic off vs def battle as well as a rematch of 2009's Wildcard game (BAL +3' 33-14 at NE). NE used the Tebowmania wave to their advantage by staying under the radar and throttling them LW. Unlike the 2009 team, the Patriots defense is more experienced and comfortable in its own skin not worried about rankings. PP gives NE a 96 yd edge here with more than enough points for the cover. We'll side with an energized Patriots team vs Flacco who's only avg'd 153 ypg (53%) with a 6-7 ratio in the playoffs and PP agrees.

Both teams capitalized on stout defensive play to turn the tables against two of the NFL's premier QB's to advance to the NFC Championship. Earlier this year SF caught the Giants at an ideal time as they were off a big road win vs NE with B2B primetime events vs PHI/NO on deck. The Giants pulled to within 7 halfway thru the 4Q and were threatening to tie at the end but DE Justin Smith deflected the pass on 4th&2 on the SF 10. The Giants had a 395-305 yd edge holding the ball for 34:37. Manning had 311 yds (65%) w/a 2-2 ratio while Smith hit for 242 yds (63%) w/a 1-1 ratio. SF is 16-1-1 ATS at home with Alex Smith and while they have only outgained foes by 12 ypg TY they are an amazing +23 TO's for their 29-13 avg score. The Giants are 6-3 SU/ATS on the road TY (inc SF) where they have been outgained by 7 ypg (+7 TO's) with a 27-26 avg score. There are plenty of common foes TY with the divisions facing each other and NO was the 1-1 non-div foe that both teams faced. The Giants were outgained by 8 ypg (+2 TO's) overall for a 20-24 avg score but 4 games were at the start of the year when the OL was adjusting and the secondary was beat up. SF was outgained by 4 ypg but were +25 TO's for a 26-18 avg score.

Statistically, Eli Manning isn't that far off from what you'd expect from him but he's had arguably his best season ever. Working behind 5 different OL combos, 2011 was another year with skill players being dinged up, yet Manning managed to throw for a career-high in passing yards. The Giants have their 1st 1,000 yd duo of receivers in Hakeem Nicks and Victor Cruz. Nicks has been a reliable but not overly splashy as the #1 WR while Cruz has been the 2nd best slot WR in the NFL TY behind Welker. Mario Manningham is now the possession WR and when healthy Jake Ballard is a solid receiving TE. Bradshaw and Jacobs each have a single 100 yd rushing game TY due to injuries to themselves and the OL. They are built to be a power rushing team and are much better than their #31 rush off ranking. The best player on the Giants #27 defense TY has been Jason Pierre-Paul whose 16.5 sks is quite impressive as he entered 2011 as the #3 pass rusher for the team. The LB's are avg even behind a strong DL, but the secondary has been a major liability TY due a lack of depth. They've given up five 300 yd passing games avg 335 ypg (58%) w/ a 15-3 ratio in those. This is another unit getting healthier late in the ssn though and SS Kenny Phillips has been excellent when healthy. The Giants spec tms aren't much better than 2010's #29 unit as they've struggled on both sides of the ball on punts and are below avg on KR's.

At the start of the year Alex Smith was viewed as being on borrowed time. Having been a 15 year NFL QB himself, Harbaugh has taken to the practice field and tutored Smith how to run his straight forward offense. SF's 2 TE set to allow them to control the LOS and give variety to the ground game. While the 49ers have yet to have a 1,000 yd receiver since they drafted Smith, Frank Gore has run for 1,000 yds in 5 of the L/6 seasons. Only DEN/HOU ran the ball more times TY than SF, as Gore had 5 straight 100 yd games in Oct/Nov as OC Greg Roman started to adjust for more passing from that point. WR Michael Crabtree finally started to mature into an NFL player TY and he likely would have had his first 1,000 yd ssn if not for another foot injury. The real #1 option in the passing game is TE Vernon Davis as 40 of his 67 rec's were for FD's. SF's passing game is muddled after that as while Kyle Williams has shown some flash they don't have another dependable quality option. This has led to their #30 red-zone finish as out of 193 off drives only 32 ended in a TD and only CIN's 30 had fewer among the playoff teams. SF's OL was much more stable with Anthony Davis and Mike Lupati in their 2nd ssn as the 49ers started their L/13 games with the same unit. Pass protection is still an issue as they gave up 1 sk for every 10.3 att's. SF's #4 def is the best finish for an NFC West team since realignment thanks to their elite def front 7 TY. DE Justin Smith played at an NFL MVP level TY and sets the tone for the entire unit. Smith's 7 sks is actually impressive for a 3-4 DE and he often was the setup blk'r for Aldon Smith who came in for pass rush situations. Smith was a part of the best LB unit in the NFL TY along with All-Pro LB Patrick Willis and NaVorro Bowman who dominated in his 1st ssn as a starter. With SF having the #1 rush def TY (69 ypg, 3.2 at home), their #16 pass def is a bit misleading as they are 1 of 5 tms with more int than pass TD's allowed. SF simply owns the best spec teams unit TY thanks to picking up one of best STC coaches in Brad Seely.

The Giants have proven to be road warriors pulling upsets at PHI (+8.5, 29-16), at NE (+9, 24-20) and at DAL (+4.5, 37-34). This only reinforces the confidence in the veterans who were around for the 2007 playoff push when the Giants won and covered 3 straight road playoff games to get to the Super Bowl. PP calls for a very even game here statistically with only 3 yds (NYG) and 2 pts (SF) separating the teams. SF won't have the emotional edge of their 1st home playoff game since 2002 especially against a veteran Giants team. Power Plays doesn't give enough for side or total here so No Play.

Coughlin has most of staff & core of team from SB run in 2007. SF staff hasn't been at this level yet. Field could be wet & slow. Giants played here earlier TY & have shown toughness in all elements. Manning vs SF front 7, NYG WR's vs SF DB's, TE Davis vs NYG LB's, SF OL vs NYG DL. Giants more exp'd at this level, getting healthier, & have won on the road in 2007 to get to SB 42.
