Well, he had 3 TD passes and 8 incompletions vs Kansas St and his first int of the year. KSU trailed 35-26 in the 4Q but he threw an int on the 2nd last drive of the game and his 4th & 2 pass fell incomplete at the end and KSU got the home win, 36-35 to move to 4-0. The Longhorns have now won 2 straight on the road vs teams that beat them in Austin last year. It was billed as one of the biggest HG's in recent memory for Iowa St but Texas dominated and Iowa St had 86 and 63 yd drives for TD's in the 4Q to make the stats a bit misleading as they show UT only had a 400-380 yd edge and ISU had a 26-19 FD edge. BSU only led 20-0 at half but had a 187-54 yd edge. Nevada did not cross their own 38 yd line until 8:23 was left in the 3Q and it happened on a 31 yd KR and NV at that point led 30-0. THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following:

• Strength of Opponent • Garbage yards • Weather • Injuries • Home Field Edges • Successful Unbalanced Attacks

More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

Welcome to this week's issue of Power Plays. The Power Plays Newsletter consists of forecasts that are made by a special Power Plays rating system. This is a system developed many years ago and we regard it very highly. In our final analysis of the plays the Power Plays forecast takes up anywhere from 25 to 30% of our total analysis. You will see in the Power Plays Newsletter in the write-ups that we agree with the majority of the Power Plays forecasts. However, there are times when we will disagree with the Power Plays forecast. We want to make it clear that this is the Power Plays Newsletter and these forecasts are based purely on the power ratings. You should never use just one method, system or angle to determine your handicapping. The times that we disagree with the Power Plays Newsletter we will clearly note it. If the Power Plays rating is strong enough to be a 4★ Play, yet we are on the other side of the game, we will clearly state that we like the other side of the game.

PRO FOOTBALL OCTOBER 9-10th, 2011

Just a quick note for our Power Plays Subscribers. Obviously this newsletter is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types of statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. Keep in mind Power Plays does not factor weather or intangibles into its projections.

INDIANAPOLIS	101	213	23	1.7	#31

IND was slated to switch to Painter on MNF & those results aren't figured in here. WR Bowe attributed KC's slow start due to the lack of OTA's which was compounded by 2 key offensive injuries (Moeaki/Charles). Breaston has 7 rec's for 146 yds the L2W & Cassel had more passing yds (247) than in his 1st 2 gms combined TY (221). PP calls for an even game statistically & with no line due to MNF we'll hold off as we want to see how Painter looks with a full week of practice.

NO PLAY: COLTS 23 CHIEFS 21

	Yards Rushing	Yards Passing	Points	Turn Overs	Special Teams
ARIZONA	71	208	17	2.1	#17
MINNESOTA	165	240	24	1.9	#7

This is the Eagles "spare QB Bowl" with McNabb vs Kolb. Despite MIN tailoring its offense to McNabb the Vikings are 28th in pass yds and 27th in yds per pass. Kolb has ARZ with the #14 pass offense & 13th in yds per pass. Cardinals DC Horton noted prior to the Giants that he had to trim 80% of his playbook down due to no OTA's and it shows as they are 25th on that side. MIN's #19 defense has been in HC Frazier's system for 5 years but the secondary is a problem. PP gives MIN a 127 yd edge (3rd best this week) & we'll side with the home team for its 1st victory here.

2★ VIKINGS 24 CARDINALS 17

	Yards Rushing	Yards Passing	Points	Turn Overs	Special Teams
PHILADELPHIA	163	265	27	2.6	#26
BUFFALO	138	245	29	2.2	#11

Both teams blew halftime leads LW with BUF losing on the final play to CIN as they haven't solved their issues vs the run yet (#26). PHI gave up its biggest halftime lead since Sept 1999 in their loss despite a career game by Vick (480 total yds). PHI does have a big edge in terms of DC's and household names here but have glaring weaknesses at LB/S. BUF is dead last in sacks per pass att (1 every 38) which combined w/ their run defense and a manageable line has us disagree w/ PP here.

NO PLAY: BILLS 29 EAGLES 27

	Yards Rushing	Yards Passing	Points	Turn Overs	Special Teams
OAKLAND	130	190	22	1.8	#15
HOUSTON	160	278	33	1.2	#6

The scoreboard says HOU pulled off a tough hard fought victory vs PIT LW. A closer look shows that they had just 3 FD & 102 yds in the 2H after WR Johnson (hamstring) went down. DC Phillips has the Texans allowing 54 ypg & 9.2 ppg less after the 1st Qtr of the ssn vs 2010. OAK tallied 504 yds in their loss to NE LW but were beaten at their own game as they were outrushed 183 (6.1) to 160 (5.9). PP gives HOU a big 118 yd edge here but without Johnson (23% offense TY) and knowing that NDIV AD's off a 500 yd game are 16-3 ATS since 1997 this is a No Play.

NO PLAY: TEXANS 33 RAIDERS 22

NEW ORLEANS	141	308	35	1.2	#8
CAROLINA	117	285	21	2.5	#32

NO has delivered 3 straight LPS winners thanks to Brees playing at an MVP level (353 ypg 69% 10-4) with the Saints topping 450 yds 3 times while avg 31.8 ppg. Newton is overachieving for CAR with 347 ypg (60%) with a 5-5 ratio & the coaching staff has done a great job of prepping him. Looking at CAR's defense though they are 31st vs the run w/ 144 ypg (5.2) & the secondary is giving up 9.0 ypa w/a 5-2 ratio. We'll take the road team again as CAR's public perception gives some line value here.

3★ SAINTS 35 PANTHERS 21

CINCINNATI	95	188	16	2.4	#18
JACKSONVILLE	138	178	15	1.0	#24

JAX has been held to under 10 pts in 3 straight games & after facing the #2 offense now take on CIN's #1 defense that is 6th in ppg allowed. JAX's QB shuffle is compounded by an OL giving up 1 sack every 12.4 att's, the lack of depth at WR leading to the Jags being outscored 51-6 in the 2H (MIN 77-16). Due to a poor home following (41k LW), another rebuilding phase & a lack of players drawing attention to themselves CIN is under the radar right now. CIN calls for a very even game statistically & we want to see if the NFL does suspend RB Benson on Tuesday before making a call so No Play.

NO PLAY: BENGALS 16 JAGUARS 15

	Yards Rushing	Yards Passing	Points	Turn Overs	Special Teams
TENNESSEE	61	129	15	1.6	#25
PITTSBURGH	102	285	20	1.7	#15

PIT was lucky to be down 10 at the end of the 1H vs HOU with a blocked FG for a TD being called back on a senseless penalty. PIT's OL issues can't be overlooked as the Texans had 19 plays behind the LOS with Roethlisberger (left ankle) getting dinged. TEN overwhelmed a young CLE team with big plays and by shutting down their run game (84 yds 3.8) exposed their lack of talent at WR. PP gives PIT the largest yard margin of the week (+197 yds) but with no line this is a No Play.

NO PLAY: STEELERS 20 TITANS 15

SEATTLE	57	183	15	2.6	#23
NY GIANTS	133	288	34	0.9	#29

The Giants are 3-1 after the 1st Qtr of the ssn. Despite a slew of injuries on defense & at WR can make some big strides in October. Getting outrushed 156 (4.9) to 54 (2.3) LW is a concern but Manning rallied the team for a 4 Qtr comeback. SEA almost pulled an upset vs ATL at home LW with 15 FD & 234 yds in the 2H as they came within 2 after being down 20 to early 3 Qtr. Now they have to travel cross country vs a team that has beaten them by an avg 42-6 in the L2 meetings that is getting healthier. PP gives the Giants the 2nd biggest yardage margin this week (+181) with more than double the points making them the top play here for the 2nd straight week.

	Yards Rushing	Yards Passing	Points	Turn Overs	Special Teams
TAMPA BAY	133	200	23	2.0	#1
SAN FRANCISCO	120	230	16	1.7	#5

The 49ers are in a great situation off 2 road wins vs a TB team coming off its 1st MNF home game since 2003 that is 3-23 SU in California. SF also has legit revenge after being shutout at home LY 21-0. SF may have the #28 offense but they are +8 TO's combined with a solid special teams unit. TB is a very respectable 9-0-2 ATS on the road but without knowing MNF's result or a line this is a No Play.

NO PLAY: BUCCANEERS 23 49ers 16

NY JETS	89	250	20	2.5	#2
NEW ENGLAND	132	301	36	1.7	#19

Strengths & weaknesses cancel each other out here with NE having the #1 offense but #32 defense vs the Jets #25 offense & #7 defense. NE's was without 3 key defensive players vs OAK LW & lost their 2nd best player on defense in LB Mayo (left MCL) for at least a month. They did flash a hidden aspect of the offense rushing for 183 yds (6.1). The Jets #30 run game is a disappointment while Burrell/Mason have combined for 260 yds (12.2). NE is still stinging from LY's home playoff loss & look for Sanchez to be overmatched vs Brady against a Jets defense that has lost its intimidation factor.

3★ PATRIOTS 36 JETS 20

	Yards Rushing	Yards Passing	Points	Turn Overs	Special Teams
SAN DIEGO	89	293	28	0.6	#30
DENVER	79	215	20	2.8	#4

SD's injuries at the skill positions & a new defensive staff had them get off to another slow start as they got their 1st cover at home vs MIA. They are one of 3 teams w/a top 10 ranking on offense/defense right now (HOU/DAL). They now take on a beat up DEN team paying for the previous coaching staff's poor drafting. This is a surprisingly low line for a Charger team that is +118 ypg so far TY (+124 ypg LY) vs a DEN team that has been outgained by 36 ypg (-42 ypg LY). PP gives the visitor that is 8-2 SU/ATS vs DEN the edge here & we agree.

ATL went up 27-7 vs SEA LW early in the 3Q LW but may have gotten ahead of themselves with GB on deck. After effectively playing to a draw in the 1st meeting LY the Falcons were shredded by the Packers at home. ATL is 17-8 ATS at home but GB is 12-6 ATS including playoffs on the road & can Rodgers keep up the pace? Get this play on the Northcoast Debit Card System for only $9 after 11:00 am ET on Sunday.
