THE MOST UNIQUE POWER RATINGS IN THE COUNTRY

These Power Play Forecasts are the most unique in the country because they are based on Northcoast Sports' Private Power Ratings. Our ratings are unlike any computer rating, as we take into account all of the following: Strength of Opponents Individual Units (Rushing Offense and Defense, Passing Offense, & Defense, Scoring Offense and Defense, Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edge, and Successful Unbalanced Attacks). Here is how each is reflected:

Strength of Opponent: Our ratings do not just take the opposing team's overall power rating into account. For example, last year, Florida Atlantic's defense vs the rush was rated at 119. They faced Alabama and allowed "just" 256 yds rushing and dropped 5 points in the national overall defensive ratings. However, Power Plays took into account the potent Crimson Tide run attack and had forecasted the Owls yielding 289 yds. Due to the fact they did better than the forecast, Power Plays raised their rating to 112 even though they slipped in the national (straight yardage) rankings. Another example last season was Wisconsin vs UTEP. Wisconsin held UTEP to just 77 yards rushing and stayed the same in the overall defense in the national statistics. However, our ratings had them rated at 15 and moved them down, as they should have yielded just 50 yards to a weak UTEP rush attack. Next time an announcer on TV tells you that a certain team is #3 in the country vs the run you better check Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings and see how good a rush defense they really have! The top twenty ratings in Power Ratings for each offensive and defensive category will be listed in each week's issue of Power Plays.

Garbage yards: These are yards that a team gains or allows in the final minutes of a game when it has been decided. For example, Team A is ahead 63-0 and allows 93 yards passing for a TD vs its fourth string defense. These yards are counted into national ratings, but not in Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings!

Weather: If a game is played in miserable weather conditions and is low scoring, the straight statistics credit the defense with outstanding performances. Our Power Ratings reflect the conditions and do not give excess credit to the defenses.

Injuries: When Missouri played Vanderbilt last year, Tigers QB James Franklin was injured early in the game. His backup, who had seen very little action (rFr), was not prepared and hit on 30%, 9-30 passes. The offensive coordinator simplified the offense. In the national statistics Vanderbilt's overall defense MOVED UP 8 NOTCHES. In Northcoast's PR they went from #11 dropping out of the Top 15, as the poor performance WAS NOT reflective of an outstanding performance by the D.

Home Field Edges: The weekly projection of yards and points is weighted with the home field factored in.

Successful Unbalanced Attacks: Last season, Tulsa was held to 155 yards passing vs Houston. This dropped Tulsa in the national passing offense ratings & RAISED the Cougars in the pass defense ratings. In our ratings the two units remained rated around the same. Why? Tulsa rushed for 350 yards & DID NOT HAVE TO RELY ON THE PASS & when they did they hit 18 of 32. While Houston's pass defense looked good in the national ratings, only Northcoast Sports' Power Ratings reflected the TRUTH!

There you have it. More than just numbers, THESE RATINGS REFLECT the true strength of each unit and allow them to have the most accurate forecast of yards gained and points allowed in the country! No other rating system takes into account all the previous factors. Next time you hear that a team is rated third in the country in pass defense, just remember, yards are not everything and Northcoast Sports' Power Plays will show you how strong the team really is.

2013 COLLEGE POWER PLAYS RANKINGS

Listed below are Northcoast Sports' Power Play Rankings. These Power Play Rankings are unique. Our rankings are unlike any computer ranking, as we take into account all the following: Strength of Opponents, Individual Units (Rushing Offense, Rushing Defense, Passing Offense, and Passing Defense) Garbage Yards, Weather, Injuries, Home Field Edges, and successful Unbalanced Attacks. Regular rankings based solely on numbers DO NOT take into account these factors.

NOTE: Power Plays - PP

PRO FOOTBALL October 24th-28th

Power Plays is based upon statistical numbers and rankings that are used to develop the projections you see here. As with all types statistical information the more numbers that one inputs ordinarily the stronger the accuracy of the results. Therefore, one would expect the projections to be more reliable after a number of weeks worth of stats are input. The numbers in parenthesis are a comparison of the teams rankings (Visitor, visitors offense ranking vs home defense ranking, Home home offensive ranking vs visitor defensive ranking) over each teams last 4 games.

(CAR #15 vs TB #16, TB #25 vs CAR #1) - It's midseason and this is the Panthers 1st NFC South game of the year. While they are gaining momentum with 3 games of 30+ in their L/4 they now face a desperate coach under heavy pressure with nothing to lose and 0-6 or worse div home teams are 24-14-2 ATS. (SF #16 vs JAX #29, JAX #22 vs SF #8) - Gus Bradley openly took his team to task for their lack of effort vs SD LW as they were outFD'd 27-10 and outgained 402-179 thru the 1st 3Q's. JAX is the 1st team to lose its 1st 7 games by 10 or more since the 1984 Oilers. They now have to face a SF team that is playing to its strengths outrushing foes 175 (4.5) to 82 (3.9) with +8 TO's the L4W. PP calls for a solid win by the better team and the +81 yd edge isn't a surprise as Harbaugh is keeping his cards close to the vest until Crabtree/Manningham return. The fact that 17 pt or more favs are 7-21-1 ATS with a 29-15 avg score limits the grade here combined with the travel issues.

(DAL #14 vs DET #31, DET #12 vs DAL #32) - DET is irate after a home loss to CIN set up by a bad punt and a disappointing secondary. They now face a DAL team with growing confidence playing DEN tough then beating WAS and PHI as Romo is having an impressive season. However, the Cowboys have yet to beat a team with a winning record and it remains to be seen if DE Ware (quad) will return (RB Murray out). PP has this at the line making it a No Play at this point.

CLE's defense is punching above its weight class but Weeden continues to astound with his struggles in Norv Turner's proven system. We think that CLE's defense will make this tougher than many think accounting for the Totals play between the #5 and #7 def's. 	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
BUFFALO	133	192	18	+5	#15
NEW ORLEANS	117	341	36	+5	#18

(BUF #22 vs NO #17, NO #5 vs BUF #18) - NO has covered 4 straight off a bye with a 42-25 avg score and TY's most improved defense gets Thad Lewis at home. BUF HC Marrone used to be NO's OC from 2006-08 and is doing a quality job with BUF despite the injuries. However, NO is 15-4 ATS as a NDIV fav but 2 losses can be discounted as they came LY. PP gives NO the #1 yd edge this week (+133) and with the QB and homefield edges being so big we agree.

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
MIAMI	111	144	18	-1	#9
NEW ENGLAND	148	227	27	+5	#7

(MIA #29 vs NE #24, NE #18 vs MIA #22) - NE got a boost with the return of Gronkowski (8 rec, 14.3) and losing the way they did LW will only sharpen their focus (7-2 ATS off div loss 32-15 avg score). MIA's OL struggles (#29 sks 3.9 ypc) and lack of an impact RB make them 1 dimensional which plays into Belichick's hands here. PP gives NE the 2nd biggest yardage margin of the week (+120) and we'll side with the home team here.

3★ PATRIOTS 27 DOLPHINS 18

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
NY JETS	112	222	25	-11	#22
CINCINNATI	85	281	30	-2	#20

(NYJ #24 vs CIN #13, CIN #8 vs NYJ #9) - Both teams are off upset wins though CIN's cost them top CB Leon Hall (achilles). This is an "A level" game for Marvin Lewis with how Rex Ryan handled his team in the past. The Jets are 1-4 ATS off a div win losing by 21, 17, 34 and 25. CIN has beaten PIT, GB, NE at home TY and this is their only home game in a 5 wk span with a Thur Night at MIA on deck. PP calls for the Jets to keep it within the line but we disagree so No Play.

NO PLAY: BENGALS 30 JETS 25

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
PITTSBURGH	98	200	20	-9	#19
OAKLAND	107	151	16	+1	#3

(PIT #9 vs OAK #23, OAK #28 vs PIT #4) - The bye served the Steelers well as their defense is playing closer to its standards and the addition of RB Bell (93 yds, 4.9) took the load off Roethlisberger vs BAL. OAK is just 1-9 ATS off a bye and vs the only other top 10 defense the Raiders faced so far TY was KC where they gave up 10 sks with 3 int by Pryor. PP has this right around the line and with a road game vs NE on deck along with Tomlin being 6-15 ATS as a NDIV AF this is a No Play here.

NO PLAY: STEELERS 20 RAIDERS 16

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
WASHINGTON	120	255	28	-2	#32
DENVER	93	356	41	-2	#4

(WAS #3 vs DEN #30, DEN #1 vs WAS #10) - Manning was harassed all night vs IND (0-6 on 3rd downs in 1H) and it didn't go unnoticed that several passes fluttered after the big hit by Mathis. Manning has avg'd 320 ypg (70%) with a 38-4 ratio at Invesco Field with DEN (9-3 ATS). WAS has growing confidence as Griffin gets healthier along with their big win vs CHI LW. PP has this right at the line but calls for an impressive 822 combined yards here and we'll go with the Over as a selection with WAS expected to field a pair of rookie safeties here with FS Meriweather looking at a suspension.

NO PLAY: BRONCOS 41 REDSKINS 28 • 4★ BRONCOS/REDSKINS: OVER

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
ATLANTA	68	234	26	-4	#16
ARIZONA	145	258	29	-2	#8

(ATL #11 vs ARZ #12, ARZ #31 vs ATL #14) - Despite not having WR's White, Jones and RB Jackson after the bye the Falcons played a classic Matt Ryan game (273 yds, 77%, 3 td) in beating TB (303-239 yd edge early 4Q). Now they have to travel to ARZ who has extra rest to sort out an OL that HC Arians flat out blamed both of Palmer's int on LW vs SEA. ARZ has been held to under 300 yds in 4 of their L5 games (SF) but ATL's multitude of injuries along with PP having this right at the line makes this a No Play as we need to see the Wednesday injury report.

NO PLAY: CARDINALS 29 FALCONS 26

	Rushing	Passing	Points	TO's	ST's
GREEN BAY	129	315	34	-2	#30
MINNESOTA	111	231	19	0	#5

(GB #4 vs MIN #28, MIN #19 vs GB #3) - The home team is 5-1 ATS in the series. The Packers receiving unit is perilously thin with Jones, Cobb and now TE Finley expected to miss (43.3% of GB's offensive yds). MIN switched to Josh Freeman for LW's MNF game vs the Giants and without knowing how he did this is a No Play. Get the Sunday Night Marquee Winner! SEATTLE	172	201	30	+7	#24
ST LOUIS	64	216	17	+5	#11

(SEA #13 vs STL #20, STL #32 vs SEA #7) - The Rams lost Sam Bradford (torn left ACL) for the year and will be turning to Kellen Clemens who hasn't started a game since Bradford was hurt in 2011 avg 182 ypg (53%) with a 2-1 ratio albeit at the end of the year with a roster that finished 2-14. Without knowing how much the line will rise over the course of the week and seeing what adjustments Fisher will make this is a No Play.
